

Create Naturally

Go Outside and Rediscover Nature with 15 Makers

by: Marcia Young

I am pleased to enclose a complimentary copy of my new book Create Naturally. One of the contributors mentioned that you may be interested in reviewing it or sharing it with your community online. If you drop me an email, I will send you interior images, so you can easily share it. marciamaker.young@gmail.com

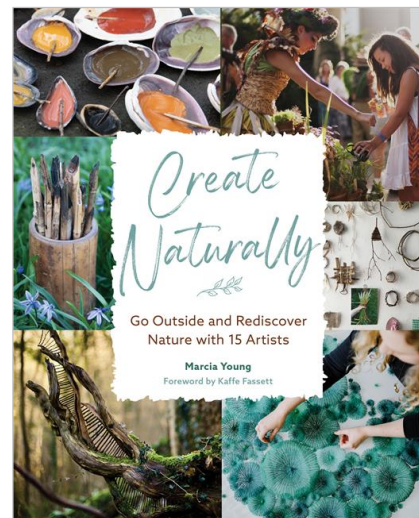

DESCRIPTION

For makers of all levels, discover practical ways to become more creative and find inspiration and meaning in your daily life by reconnecting with nature. Meet 15 makers who share their process of creating works that focus on nature art in making a mind, body, and spirit connection. You'll learn how they created a nature journal, temporary beach sculptures, dyed textile or woven wall art, sculptural vessels and baskets with natural materials, embroidery inspired and influenced by the natural world, and much more. Discover works that integrate natural materials as well as recycled and repurposed objects. Have a personal, authentic, and creative conversation with the makers while you take a walk through nature with them. This is a gorgeous, hard cover book that will make a wonderful gift for nature enthusiasts, crafters, makers, artists, creatively minded person, or anyone interested in mindfulness and gaining a greater connection with nature.

AUTHOR BIO

Marcia Young has been making or writing about art and fine craft for over 30 years. She is the founder of the Fiber Art Network and former publisher of Fiber Art Now magazine. These days she concentrates on helping to enrich the fine craft community by creating distinctive books and resources. She lives near Cape Cod, Massachusetts.

@Marcia_Maker, marciamaker.young@gmail.com

Pub Date: 11/22/2022

Price: $29.99 USD

ISBN: 978-0-7643-6434-1

Trim: 8.0 X 10.0

Pages: 208

Imprint: Schiffer Craft, schifferscraft.com

marketing@schifferbooks.com

